A LWAYS CHAMPIONING THE RIGHTS OF FAMILIES AND CHILDREN Villari, Brandes & Kline stands up for people who have been wrongfully harmed – children injured at birth, people hurt in accidents and anyone who needs a strong, dedicated advocate in a time of physical, emotional and financial turmoil.

Peter Villari, managing shareholder, is a Super Lawyer with nearly 30 years' experience as a litigator. The father of four, he has dedicated his career to championing the rights of children and their families. Villari is regularly retained in high profile cases such as the Camden car trunk tragedy, where three children suffocated because police failed to follow nationally recognized search procedures. He also obtained a $6.45 million settlement for the family of the man killed in the infamous Schuylkill Expressway truck collision.

"Every time I speak with parents about their personal tragedy, I feel compelled to ensure we do everything in our power to help that family and to prevent similar future tragedies," he says.
